

FROM NUREMBURG TO THE HAGUE

THE FUTURE OF INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Institute of Contemporary History and Wiener Library and Matrix Chambers
in association with the Guardian and the Centre for International Courts and Tribunals at UCL

One: 24 April 2002

The Nuremberg Trials:

International Law in the Making

Professor Richard Overy, King's College, London

Two: 1 May 2002

Nuremberg and subsequent developments in international humanitarian and human rights law

Andrew Clapham, Associate Professor of International Law,
Geneva Chair: David Bean QC, Chairman of the Bar
Council, Barrister, Matrix Chambers

Three: 15 May 2002

After Pinochet: the role of national courts

Philippe Sands, Professor of Laws, UCL; Barrister, Matrix
Chambers Chair: Lord Justice Stephen Sedley

Four: 29 May 2002

The drafting of the Statute of the ICC

James Crawford SC, Whewell Professor of International Law,
Cambridge University
Chair: Ed Pilkington, Foreign Editor, The Guardian

Five: 12 June 2002

Prospects and issues for the International Criminal Court: lessons from Yugoslavia and Rwanda

Cherie Booth QC, Barrister, Matrix Chambers

All lectures £5 (£3 concs.) £20/£10 whole series
Entry strictly by pre-registration only; 7pm start
CPD accreditation reference: CFB/MACH

Tickets: t:+44 (0) 207 636 7247 f:+44 (0) 207 436 6428
e: info@wienerlibrary.co.uk www.wienerlibrary.co.uk